Rossini Cocktail

Ingredients:

- 1 lb fresh strawberries or frozen strawberries
- ¼ cup 56g simple syrup or granulated sugar
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice (about ½ a lemon)
- 1 750mL bottle sparkling white wine or champagne, chilled
- Strawberries to garnish

Instructions:

1. In a high powdered blender, puree the strawberries, simple syrup or sugar, and lemon juice in a blender until very smooth.
2. Pour the strawberry mixture through a fine-mesh sieve set over a wide mouth container to remove seeds and excess pulp, if desired.
3. Spoon the puree into glass flutes to fill by a third of the way up the flute. Slowly pour the sparkling wine or champagne over the strawberry puree and stir gently. Garnish glass with a strawberry. Serve immediately.

Nastro Azzurro Pale Lager is made with a corn exclusive to Peroni—Nostrano dell'Isola maize—which imbues the beer with its color, clarity and characteristic citrus, spice, and bitter balance. The beer is brewed with Saaz-Saaz and Hallertau Magnum hops, responsible for Nastro Azzurro's ephemeral touch on the palate. Taken together, with two-row spring barley in the mix, you get a premium beer notable for its especially crisp finish.

Regioni del Vino

Italy produces more wine by volume than any other country in the world. The country's 20 wine regions grow over 370 unique varieties of grapes. Regions matter, because when you are drinking wine, you are drinking the Earth itself. Every year, weather, temperature and soil chemistry vary and produce what are sometimes dramatically different wines from precisely the same place. Because these wine regions have been cultivating their fields for centuries, and sometimes millennia, they each bring distinct characteristics to the barrel, and later, the bottle.

"Even though the aging minimum is 12 months, Rouses goes the extra mile and brings in Parmigiano Reggiano wheels aged at least 24 months. Longer aging makes the cheese harder, saltier and concentrated. In other words, it makes it more delicious!"
- Katie, CCP

On average,
a Parmigiano
Reggiano wheel is 88 LBS!

Parmigiano Reggiano is well known in pasta dishes but can be used to elevate any dish, from roasted vegetables to salads to soups. It can even stand alone as a table cheese or as an addition to a cheese or charcuterie board.
